

Hallelujah
Father Ray's version

We join together here today
To help two people on their way
As THE BRIDE and GROOM start their life together

And now we've reached their special date
We've come to help them celebrate
And show them how much we all love them too yeah

Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah

As THE BRIDE is walking up the aisle
And THE GROOM looks up and gives a smile
The love that flows between them fills the church yeah

With the family and friends at her side
She really is the blushing bride
With love and pride they lead her Hallelujah

Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah

With the priest and the family who lead the prayers
We say our lines and they say theirs
I guide them through the ceremony hoo yeah

And in this house of God above
We join their hands to show their love,
And say those most important words 'I do' yeah

Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Hallelujah, Hallelujah

Hallelujah, Hallelujah
